Parable of the Lost Coin

Luke 15:8-10

"Jesus told this parable: Suppose a woman has ten silver coins and loses one. Doesn't she light a lamp, sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it? And when she finds it, she calls her friends and neighbors together and says, "Rejoice with me; I have found my lost coin." In the same way, I tell you, there is rejoicing in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.

The Parable of the Lost Coin teaches us several important lessons:

1. Value of Every Soul: Matthew 10:30-31 - "And even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. So don't be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows." Every individual is precious to God, just like the lost coin was valuable to the woman. This teaches us that every person has immense worth in God's eyes, and we should treat others with the same value and respect. An example of this from the Bible is Jesus' interaction with Zacchaeus in Luke 19:1-10. Despite Zacchaeus being a despised tax collector, Jesus valued him, visited his home, and brought salvation to his household.

2. Diligent Search: Ezekiel 34:16 - "I will search for the lost and bring back the strays. I will bind up the injured and strengthen the weak." God searches for those who are lost, and we should also seek to help others find their way to Him. The woman's diligent search for the coin symbolizes God's persistent and active pursuit of each lost soul, reminding us to be proactive in reaching out to those who are lost. An illustrative example from the Bible is the story of the Good Shepherd in John 10:11-18, where Jesus describes Himself as the good shepherd who lays down His life for the sheep and actively seeks the one that is lost.

"As we reflect on the Parable of the Lost Coin, let us remember the great value of every soul to God. Let us diligently seek to help others find their way to God and rejoice when they do."
