Parable of the Lost Sheep

Matthew 18:12-14; Luke 15:3-7

"Jesus told this parable: 'Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them. Doesn't he leave the ninety-nine in the open country and go after the lost sheep until he finds it? And when he finds it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders and goes home. Then he calls his friends and neighbors together and says, "Rejoice with me; I have found my lost sheep." I tell you that in the same way there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need to repent.'"

The Parable of the Lost Sheep teaches us several important lessons:

1. God's Concern for the Lost: Matthew 18:14 - "In the same way your Father in heaven is not willing that any of these little ones should perish." God deeply cares for those who are lost and actively seeks them out. Just as the shepherd leaves the ninety-nine to find the one lost sheep, God's love and attention are directed toward bringing the lost back to Him.

An example from the Bible is Jesus' encounter with the Samaritan woman at the well in John 4:1-26. Despite her social and moral status, Jesus reaches out to her, offering her the living water of eternal life.

2.Joy Over Repentance: Zephaniah 3:17 - "The Lord your God is with you, the Mighty Warrior who saves. He will take great delight in you; in his love he will no longer rebuke you, but will rejoice over you with singing." There is great joy in heaven when one sinner repents and returns to God. The celebration over the found sheep illustrates the immense joy and delight God and the heavenly hosts feel when a lost soul returns to Him. This is further illustrated in the story of Zacchaeus in Luke 19:1-10. When Zacchaeus repents and vows to make restitution, Jesus declares that salvation has come to his house, highlighting the joy in heaven over his repentance.

"As we reflect on the Parable of the Lost Sheep, let us remember to care for those who are lost, celebrate their return, and value every individual just as God does."
