Parable of the Minas
Luke 19:12-27

"Jesus told this parable: 'A man of noble birth went to a distant country to have himself appointed king and then to return. So he called ten of his servants and gave them ten minas. "Put this money to work," he said, "until I come back." But his subjects hated him and sent a delegation after him to say, "We don't want this man to be our king."
He was made king, however, and returned home. Then he sent for the servants to whom he had given the money, in order to find out what they had gained with it. The first one came and said, "Sir, your mina has earned ten more." "Well done, my good servant!" his master replied. "Because you have been trustworthy in a very small matter, take charge of ten cities."
The second came and said, "Sir, your mina has earned five more." His master answered, "You take charge of five cities."
Then another servant came and said, "Sir, here is your mina; I have kept it laid away in a piece of cloth. I was afraid of you, because you are a hard man. You take out what you did not put in and reap what you did not sow." His master replied, "I will judge you by your own words, you wicked servant! You knew, did you, that I am a hard man, taking out what I did not put in, and reaping what I did not sow? Why then didn't you put my money on deposit, so that when I came back, I could have collected it with interest?"

The Parable of the Minas teaches us several important lessons:

1. Wise Management of Resources: Proverbs 3:9-10 - "Honor the Lord with your wealth, with the firstfruits of all your crops; then your barns will be filled to overflowing, and your vats will brim over with new wine." We are called to use the resources God has given us wisely and productively. The story of Joseph in Egypt (Genesis 41) is a great example. Joseph managed the resources during the seven years of plenty so well that there was enough to sustain Egypt and neighboring countries during the seven years of famine.

2. Accountability: Romans 14:12 - "So then, each of us will give an account of ourselves to God." This parable reminds us that we will be held accountable for how we manage what God has entrusted to us. It encourages us to be diligent and faithful in all we do, knowing that our efforts are seen and rewarded by God. The parable of the talents (Matthew 25:14-30) echoes this lesson, showing that those who are faithful with little will be entrusted with much and those who are not will face consequences.

"As we reflect on the Parable of the Minas, let us remember to manage our resources wisely, understand our accountability to God, and strive for faithfulness to receive His rewards."
