The Parable of The Good Samaritan

Luke 10:30-37

Parable of the Good Samaritan

- Verses: Luke 10:30-37
- Key Verse: Luke 10:33 "But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion."
- Illustration: A man is attacked by robbers and left for dead. A priest and a Levite pass by without helping, but a Samaritan, who is typically despised by Jews, stops to help and care for the man.
- Life Application: We should love and help everyone, even those who are different from us or whom society may despise. Compassion and kindness should guide our actions.

Parable of the Good Samaritan

Luke 10:30-37

Jesus told this parable: 'A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, when he was attacked by robbers. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. A priest happened to be going down the same road, and when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. So too, a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his own donkey, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper. "Look after him," he said, "and when I return, I will reimburse you for any extra expense you may have.

Life Applications: "The Parable of the Good Samaritan teaches us several important lessons:

1. Compassion for All: We should show compassion to everyone, regardless of their background or status. Colossians 3:12 - "Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience."

2. Helping Others: We should help those in need, even if it requires personal sacrifice. Galatians 6:2 - "Carry each other's burdens, and in this way, you will fulfill the law of Christ."

3. Breaking Barriers: We should not let social or cultural barriers prevent us from showing kindness. John 13:34 - "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another."

As we reflect on the Parable of the Good Samaritan, let us remember to act with compassion and kindness, helping those in need regardless of their background. Let us strive to break down barriers and show love to everyone."
