City on a Hill

Matthew 5:14

Jesus said: You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead, they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.

The teaching about being a City on a Hill gives us important lessons:

1. Living Openly: Philippians 2:15 says, “So that you may become blameless and pure, children of God without fault in a warped and crooked generation. Then you will shine among them like stars in the sky. Just as a city on a hill is visible to everyone, Christians should live openly and righteously, letting their actions reflect their faith. The story of Daniel, who openly prayed to God despite the king’s decree (Daniel 6), demonstrates living one’s faith openly. With open hearts, let us seek God’s guidance to live our faith openly and righteously. Jesus said, A city set on a hill. Let’s ask for God’s help to be visible examples of His love and righteousness.

2. Serving as an Example: 1 Timothy 4:12 says, Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith and in purity. Christians are called to serve as examples of God's love and righteousness. The story of Joseph, who remained faithful and righteous despite many trials (Genesis 37-50), illustrates serving as a positive example. With humble hearts, let us follow God's guidance in all we do. Jesus said, "A city set on a hill". Let's strive to be role models in our communities through our righteous living and good deeds, sharing His love and bringing glory to His name.

In conclusion, today we reflect on being a city on a hill, focusing on 1) Living Openly and 2) Serving as an Example through our faith and actions. Even though we may face challenges like fear, distractions, and temptations, let us believe in God's unwavering love, deepen our faith, draw closer to God, and trust in His promises. We also pray for those who struggle to shine brightly, knowing that God always welcomes those who repent. Wishing you receive Jesus in your heart and let His light shine through you every day.
