Cloth and Wineskins

Matthew 9:16-17; Mark 2:21-22; Luke 5:36-39

Cloth and Wineskins

- Verses: Matthew 9:16-17; Mark 2:21-22; Luke 5:36-39
- Key Verse: Matthew 9:17 "Neither do people pour new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the skins will burst; the wine will run out and the wineskins will be ruined. No, they pour new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved."
- Illustration: New cloth on old garments and new wine in old wineskins cause damage because the new does not fit the old.
- Life Application: The new teachings of Jesus about the Kingdom of God cannot be contained within the old laws and traditions of Judaism.

Cloth and Wineskins

Matthew 9:16-17; Mark 2:21-22; Luke 5:36-39

"Jesus said: 'Neither do people pour new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the skins will burst; the wine will run out and the wineskins will be ruined. No, they pour new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved.' The new cloth on old garments will tear, and new wine in old wineskins will burst them. This shows how the new teachings of Jesus need a new way, different from the old traditions."

"The teaching about Cloth and Wineskins gives us important lessons:"

1. Embracing New Teachings: 2 Corinthians 5:17 says, "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!" Just as new wine needs new wineskins, Jesus' new teachings require us to embrace a new way of living. The story of Paul, who changed from a person who hurt Christians to a devoted follower of Christ (Acts 9), shows embracing new teachings. With open hearts, let us try to understand and live by Jesus' teachings. Jesus said, "No, they pour new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved." Let's ask for God's wisdom and strength to embrace His new teachings and let them change our lives.

2. Leaving Behind Old Ways: Philippians 3:13-14 says, "Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus." Jesus' teachings call us to leave behind old ways and embrace a new life in Him. The story of Zacchaeus, who left his dishonest ways and followed Jesus (Luke 19:1-10), shows leaving behind old ways. With humble hearts, let us be willing to let go of old habits and traditions that do not fit with Jesus' teachings. Jesus said, "Neither do people pour new wine into old wineskins." Let's try to live by His new teachings, bringing glory to His name.

"In conclusion, today we think about being 'cloth and wineskins,' focusing on 1) Embracing New Teachings and 2) Leaving Behind Old Ways through our faith and actions. Even though we may face challenges like fear, distractions, and temptations, let us believe in Jesus' power to change us, deepen our faith, draw closer to Him, and trust in His promises. We also pray for those who struggle to accept new teachings, knowing that Jesus always welcomes those who come back to Him. I hope you receive Jesus in your heart and let His teachings change your life every day."
