Lamp on a Stand

Matthew 5:15; Mark 4:21; Luke 8:16

"Jesus said: 'Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead, they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house.' A lamp's purpose is to provide light, and by placing it on a stand, it fulfills this purpose effectively. Similarly, our good deeds should be visible to others, shining brightly to glorify our Father in heaven."

"The teaching about being a Lamp on a Stand gives us important lessons:"

1. Shining Brightly: Matthew 5:16 says, "In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven." Just as a lamp provides light for the house, our good deeds should be evident to those around us. The story of Tabitha (Dorcas), who was known for her good works and acts of charity (Acts 9:36-42), shows how we can shine brightly through our actions. With open hearts, let us seek to reflect God's light in all we do. Jesus said, "Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl." Let's ask for God's help to let our good deeds shine, bringing glory to His name.

2. Leading Others to Praise God: 1 Peter 2:12 says, "Live such good lives among the pagans that, though they accuse you of doing wrong, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day he visits us." Our actions should inspire others to praise and glorify God. The story of the early Christians, who lived exemplary lives and attracted many to the faith (Acts 2:42-47), shows how our good deeds can lead others to praise God. With humble hearts, let us be mindful of our actions and their impact on others. Jesus said, "Instead, they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house." Let's strive to live in a way that leads others to glorify our heavenly Father.

"In conclusion, today we reflect on being 'a lamp on a stand,' focusing on 1) Shining Brightly and 2) Leading Others to Praise God through our faith and actions. Even though we may face challenges like fear, distractions, and temptations, let us believe in God's power to help us shine brightly, deepen our faith, draw closer to Him, and trust in His promises. We also pray for those who struggle to shine brightly, knowing that God always welcomes those who repent. Wishing you receive Jesus in your heart and let His light guide you every day."
