Parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus

Luke 16:19-31

Parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus

- Verses: Luke 16:19-31
- Key Verse: Luke 16:25 “But Abraham replied, 'Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, while Lazarus received bad things, but now he is comforted here and you are in agony.”
- Illustration: A rich man lives in luxury while Lazarus suffers in poverty at his gate. Both die, and their fortunes are reversed in the afterlife.
- Life Application: This parable warns against hard-heartedness and neglect of the poor, stressing the consequences of ignoring God’s commands to love and serve others.

Parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus

Luke 16:19-31

Jesus told this parable: 'There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and lived in luxury every day. At his gate was laid a beggar named Lazarus, covered with sores and longing to eat what fell from the rich man's table. Even the dogs came and licked his sores. The time came when the beggar died and the angels carried him to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried. In Hades, where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus by his side. So he called to him, "Father Abraham, have pity on me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am in agony in this fire." But Abraham replied, "Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, while Lazarus received bad things, but now he is comforted here and you are in agony. And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been set in place, so that those who want to go from here to you cannot, nor can anyone cross over from there to us."
He answered, "Then I beg you, father, send Lazarus to my family, for I have five brothers. Let him warn them, so that they will not also come to this place of torment." Abraham replied, "They have Moses and the Prophets; let them listen to them." "No, father Abraham," he said, "but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent." He said to him, "If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.

The Parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus teaches us several important lessons:

1. Compassion for the Poor: Proverbs 19:17 - "Whoever is kind to the poor lends to the Lord, and he will reward them for what they have done." The rich man's neglect of Lazarus highlights the importance of showing compassion and generosity to those in need. We are called to love and serve the less fortunate, recognizing their inherent value and dignity. The story of the Good Samaritan in Luke 10:30-37 is another example that emphasizes the importance of showing mercy and compassion to those in need.

2. Eternal Consequences: Matthew 25:45-46 - "He will reply, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for me.' Then they will go away to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life." This parable underscores the eternal consequences of our actions and attitudes towards others. Ignoring God's commands to love and serve others can lead to severe consequences in the afterlife. The account of the sheep and the goats in Matthew 25:31-46 also illustrates the importance of caring for others and the eternal significance of our actions.

"As we reflect on the Parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus, let us remember to show compassion for the poor, heed God's Word, and understand the eternal consequences of our actions. Let us strive to love and serve others as God commands."
