The Strong Man

Matthew 12:29; Mark 3:27; Luke 11:21-22

"Jesus said: 'But no one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man. Then indeed he may plunder his house.' This means that before someone can take things from a strong man's house, they must first tie him up. This shows how Jesus has the power to defeat evil forces and free people from their control."

"The teaching about the Strong Man gives us important lessons:"

1. Trusting Jesus' Power Over Evil: 1 John 4:4 says, "You, dear children, are from God and have overcome them, because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world." Just as a strong man must be tied up before his house can be taken, Jesus has the power to defeat evil forces. The story of Jesus casting out demons, like in the case of the possessed man in Mark 5:1-20, shows His authority over evil. With open hearts, let us trust in Jesus' power to protect us. Jesus said, "But no one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man." Let's ask for God's strength and protection against all evil forces, knowing He is greater than any evil.

2. Believing in Jesus' Authority to Free Us: John 8:36 says, "So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed." Jesus has the authority to free us from any kind of oppression or control by evil. The story of Mary Magdalene, from whom Jesus cast out seven demons (Luke 8:2), shows how He can free people from the power of evil. With humble hearts, let us believe in Jesus' authority to liberate us from all that binds us. Jesus said, "Then indeed he may plunder his house." Let's trust in His power to free us and others, bringing glory to His name.

"In conclusion, today we reflect on being 'the strong man,' focusing on 1) Trusting Jesus' Power Over Evil and 2) Believing in Jesus' Authority to Free Us through our faith and actions. Despite the challenges that can try to bind us, such as fear, distractions, and temptations, let us believe in Jesus' power to protect and free us, deepen our faith, draw closer to Him, and trust in His promises. We also pray for those who struggle to trust in Jesus' power, knowing that He always welcomes those who come to Him. Wishing you receive Jesus in your heart and let His power and authority guide you every day."
