Parable of the Cost of Discipleship

Luke 14:28-33

"Jesus said: 'Suppose one of you wants to build a tower. Won't you first sit down and estimate the cost to see if you have enough money to complete it? For if you lay the foundation and are not able to finish it, everyone who sees it will ridicule you, saying, "This person began to build and wasn't able to finish." Or suppose a king is about to go to war against another king. Won't he first sit down and consider whether he is able with ten thousand men to oppose the one coming against him with twenty thousand? If he is not able, he will send a delegation while the other is still a long way off and will ask for terms of peace.
In the same way, those of you who do not give up everything you have cannot be my disciples.'"

The Parable of the Cost of Discipleship teaches us several important lessons:

1. Counting the Cost: Luke 9:23 - "Then he said to them all: 'Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow me.'" Just as the builder needs to calculate the cost before starting construction, we need to understand the commitment and sacrifices required to follow Jesus.

The story of the rich young ruler (Matthew 19:16-22) illustrates this lesson; despite his desire to follow Jesus, he was not willing to give up his wealth, highlighting the importance of being prepared to make sacrifices for our faith.

2. Full Commitment: Philippians 3:8 - "What is more, I consider everything a loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them garbage, that I may gain Christ." Following Jesus requires a complete and wholehearted commitment. This is demonstrated in the story of Peter, Andrew, James, and John, who left their fishing nets and livelihoods immediately when Jesus called them (Matthew 4:18-22). Their willingness to leave everything behind shows the level of dedication required to be true disciples.

"As we reflect on the Parable of the Cost of Discipleship, let us remember the importance of counting the cost, making a full commitment, and being willing to sacrifice for the sake of following Jesus."
