The Camel and the Eye of a Needle

Matthew 19:24; Mark 10:25; Luke 18:25

"Jesus said: 'Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.' This means that it is very hard for a rich person to enter God's kingdom if they trust in their wealth instead of God. It shows us that relying on wealth can keep us from relying on God."

"The teaching about the Camel and the Eye of a Needle gives us important lessons:"

1. Understanding the Limitations of Wealth: 1 Timothy 6:10 says, "For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs." Just as a camel cannot go through the eye of a needle, wealth cannot buy salvation or entrance into God's kingdom. The story of the rich young ruler, who chose his wealth over following Jesus (Mark 10:17-27), shows the limitations of wealth. With open hearts, let us understand that wealth cannot save us. Jesus said, "It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle." Let's ask for God's wisdom to rely on His grace rather than wealth.

2. Relying on God's Grace: Ephesians 2:8-9 says, "For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—not by works, so that no one can boast." Salvation is a gift from God that we cannot earn through wealth or good deeds. The story of Zacchaeus, who was a rich tax collector but found salvation through Jesus (Luke 19:1-10), illustrates relying on God's grace. With humble hearts, let us depend on God's grace for our salvation. Jesus said, "Than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." Let's strive to trust in God's grace and live by faith, bringing glory to His name.

"In conclusion, today we reflect on being 'the camel and the eye of a needle,' focusing on 1) Understanding the Limitations of Wealth and 2) Relying on God's Grace through our faith and actions. Even though we may face challenges like fear, distractions, and temptations, let us believe in Jesus' power to help us rely on God's grace, deepen our faith, draw closer to Him, and trust in His promises. We also pray for those who struggle with trusting in wealth, knowing that Jesus always welcomes those who come to Him. Wishing you receive Jesus in your heart and let His grace guide you every day."
