Living Stones (Peter)

1 Peter 2:4-5

"Peter said: 'You also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood.' Peter explained that just as stones are used to build a house, we are like living stones being built into a spiritual house. Jesus is the cornerstone, the most important stone in the building. In the early Church, believers were united in their faith and worked together to build a strong spiritual community. They supported one another, shared their resources, and made Jesus the foundation of their lives."

"The teaching about Living Stones gives us important lessons:"

1. Being Part of a Spiritual Community: Hebrews 10:24-25 says, "And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching." Just as stones are connected to form a strong structure, we need to be connected to our spiritual community. The story of the early Church, where believers met together and shared everything (Acts 2:42-47), shows the importance of community. With open hearts, let us be active members of our spiritual community. Peter said, "You also, like living stones." Let's ask for God's help to support and encourage each other because our strength comes from being united in Christ.

2. Building a Strong Foundation on Christ: Ephesians 2:20 says, "Built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone." Jesus is the cornerstone of our faith, and we need to build our lives on Him. The story of the wise and foolish builders (Matthew 7:24-27) shows the importance of building on a strong foundation. With humble hearts, let us build our lives on Christ. Peter said, "Are being built into a spiritual house." Let's strive to make Jesus the cornerstone of our lives, bringing glory to His name because a strong foundation ensures our faith will withstand life's challenges.

"As we reflect on Peter's teaching about 'Living Stones,' let us remember the importance of being part of a spiritual community and building our lives on Christ. Let us support and encourage each other, making Jesus the cornerstone of our faith. May you receive Jesus in your heart and let His guidance lead you every day."
