The Light in Darkness (John)

John 1:4-5; 1 John 1:5-7

"John wrote: 'In him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.' And in 1 John 1:5-7, he adds, 'This is the message we have heard from him and declare to you: God is light; in him, there is no darkness at all. If we claim to have fellowship with him and yet walk in the darkness, we lie and do not live out the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from all sin.' These verses highlight the powerful truth that Jesus is the light that overcomes darkness. Just as light dispels darkness, Jesus' presence in our lives drives away sin, confusion, and despair. John emphasizes that living in fellowship with Jesus means walking in the light—living in truth, honesty, and righteousness. When we live in the light, we are cleansed from sin and enjoy fellowship with other believers. This light of Jesus not only guides us but also transforms our lives, making us reflections of His truth to the world around us."

The analogy of The Light in Darkness teaches us several important lessons:

1. Living in the Light: Ephesians 5:8 says, 'For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light.' Embracing Jesus as the light means living in truth and righteousness. The story of Jesus healing the blind man (John 9:1-12) illustrates how Jesus brings light into our lives. In daily life, we should walk in the light by following Jesus' teachings and living with integrity. Living in the light reflects the principle of The Light in Darkness.

2. Guidance and Truth: Psalm 119:105 says, 'Your word is a lamp for my feet, a light on my path.' Jesus' light guides us in our daily decisions and actions. The story of the Israelites being led by a pillar of fire (Exodus 13:21-22) shows God's guidance through light. In daily life, we should seek Jesus' guidance and allow His truth to illuminate our paths. Following Jesus' guidance reflects the principle of The Light in Darkness."
